REALIGNMENT FOR LUTHERANS IS PROGRESSING

The sixteenth annual convention of the West Pennsylvania Conference of the Central Pennsylvania Synod of the United Lutheran Church in America met at Enola on Wednesday.

The conference closed with an action formally disssolving the organization of the conference. The dissolution came as another step in the program of realignment of synodical and conference boundaries adopted by the Central Pennsylvania Synod at its annual convention in May.

By its dissolution, the West Pennsylvania Conference opened the way for the reorganization of its territory into two constituent conferences of the Central Pennsylvania Synod: the York Conference comprising the Lutheran churches of York County and the West Pennsylvania Conference, which will include the Lutheran churches in Adams, Cumberland, Franklin, Fulton and Perry Counties.

These new conferences will be organized at meetings to be held on October 28.

The convention opened with the service of communion and officiating at the service were the officers of the conference: Rev. Ralph C. Sloop, president, New Cumberland; the Rev. David S. Kammerer, vice president, Littlestown, and the Rev. Robert A. Sternat, Biglerville. Communion was administered to about 125 delegates and several visitors.

"Mr. Waddles" Joins GHS Faculty

Mr. Quackable Waddles Wednesday became the newest member of the Gettysburg High School faculty.

Mr. Waddles, whose duties will be in the psychological department to help whip up enthusiasm at the football games and other sports events, received his degree summa cum laughter at Hershey Tuesday night.

One of the gifts at the birthday party held for President Eisenhower, Mr. Waddles, an extremely live duck, was awarded to Henry M. Scharf.

Scharf in turn presented him to the high school and he now is a member of the agriculture department "faculty," adding his opinion during the work in the shop there. He is confined temporarily to a pen in the workshop.

Some students at the school are engaged in making a jacket for Mr. Waddles, according to Principal Guise W. Lefever, and suitably decked for a duck he will appear with the cheer leaders at the next football game.

ARGUE APPEAL ON APPLE PRICE FIXING CHARGE

WASHINGTON (AP)—Did Appalachian apple growers and processors conspire to fix prices in 1950?

Attorneys for the apple growers maintain there is "overwhelming" evidence to the contrary. Federal Trade Commission attorneys counter that "without a doubt the conspiracy reached perfection" in 1950.

The attorneys argued their case before the commission yesterday. The agency has appealed from a hearing examiner's decision proposing dismissal of complaints of price fixing and diversion of raw apple supplies to prevent a price break.

Appalachian's attorney, Lyman Hulbert, told the commission there was "undisputed" evidence during the lengthy hearing last April before Examiner Frank Hier that in 1950 C. H. Musselman Co. of Biglerville, Pa., paid nothing for culls while National Fruit Product Co., Inc., Winchester, Va., and Bowman Apple Products Co. Inc., Mt. Jackson, Va., in all cases paid for culls.

29 Back Processors

Commission Counsel Floyd Collins said the examiner's decision was based on "piecemeal consideration of evidence."

Collins argued that the law says prices are fixed when there is an agreement to fix prices. It doesn't matter, he added, if later some "party reneges on the agreement."

Russel M. Weaver of Harrisonburg, Va., counsel for the processors, said that 29 witnesses testified during the April hearing there was no price fixing.

William J. Boyd, another commission attorney, countered "bonuses paid six months after delivery were merely a matter of good will" and did not constitute different price payments.

Wills, chairman of the committee; Mrs. William C. Fishburn, organist; Howard A. Knouse, D. Walker Woods, Arthur M. Gordon and the pastor, will take part in the service. George M. Neely will speak as a member of the Church Session which has oversight of the ministry of music in the church.

The service and participation of members of the congregation in the dedication coincides with the observance of Laymen's Sunday in the Presbyterian Church, U. S. A.

TOURING YANKS RETURN TONIGHT FROM VIRGINIA

(Special To The Times)

RICHMOND, Va. — Almost 350 glorious years of American history passed before the eyes of Gettysburg's "goodwill" delegation Wednesday, as the 29 local guests of the Virginia Travel Council completed the third leg on a 4-day tour of eastern Virginia.

Negotiating this vast time spread in only eight hours, the Adams Countians successively stood on the exact 1607 site of Captain John Smith's Jamestown colony, later visited colonial Williamsburg where Patrick Henry first kindled the flames of American revolution, and then entered the dank casement dungeon where a shackled Jefferson Davis once lay imprisoned following the assassination of Abraham Lincoln.

Return Home Tonight

Slightly numb after the hectic activities of the past week the busload of local citizens is scheduled to return to Gettysburg late this evening after a final fling today which includes a visit to Fort Hell at Petersburg, Va., the Petersburg National Battlefield Park, and a tour of Richmond.

Delegated to the top position of group interest Wednesday was the brief visit paid to historic Jamestown—replete with bronze statues of Captain Smith and gentle Princess Pocahontas, combined chapel-council house, burial ground, colorful legends and a wonderful old Negro story-teller.

Recounting the Jamestown history in a rapid-fire summary, the guide told of the coming of the first white women to the colony where for a sum equivalent to $3.75 they were wed to the colonists. According to "Uncle Remus"—"You take your wife or you leave 'em, but there was never any left over."

TO EXPERIMENT ON LIGHTS FOR CLOCK TOWER

Residents of the town are invited by two "scientists," Commissioners Clerk Clarence C. Smith and Court House Custodian Theodore U. Geiman, to assist in an "experiment" to be conducted in connection with the town clock atop the Court House tower. The "tests" will be run within the next few nights.

The two have rigged a spot light system by which they will try to light one of the faces of the clock for several nights. Then they will try a floodlight system. The public is asked to check and let the "scientists" know which system provides the better light.

If the spot light or flood light, both of which will be fastened to the roof of the court house, does the job, the one proving the better in the test will be permanently installed. The new system will replace the present bulbs which have lighted the face of the clock for years.

The present lights burn out frequently and the only way to replace the bulb is to use a ten foot pole with a wire basket arrangement which clamps around the bulb and with some expert manipulating can be used to remove the bulbs and put in new ones. On a windy day the bulbs are among those things that "one literally can't touch with a ten foot pole," Smith explained.

If the lights from the roof work well, they can be easily reached for replacement and thus will be more often in operation, Smith added.

Defiant Chinese Prisoners Reject Communism 49 To 1

By MILO FARNETI

PANMUNJOM, (AP)—Balking Chinese prisoners dealt the Communists a stinging propaganda blow today by rejecting 49-1 the first Red attempts to coax them home.

All but 10 of 500 Chinese who met Communist interviewers in the first clamorous explanation sessions chose continued captivity over repatriation to Red China, said the Neutral Nations Repatriation Commission (NNRC).

The Reds had claimed the 22,400 unrepatriated Chinese and North Koreans were being held against their will.

This long-delayed psychological phase of the armistice began only after Indian custodian troops pried the wildly demonstrating Chinese from their compounds with threats of force. The Indian commander said later, "We used patience, persuasion and firmness."

Many POWs shouted and sang in the faces of the three-man Red interview teams. Indian guards with sticks had to restrain some. A few danced defiantly on the wooden tent floors.

At first, the NNRC forced the prisoners to listen to the explanations for five minutes, but this was cut to one minute after a U. N. representative protested.

One American observer, W. D. Stout, formerly of Knoxville, Tenn., was ordered out of the explanation center by the NNRC after he protested repeatedly that he was seated out of sight of the prisoners. The protest was overruled.

Defy Two Ultimatums

After defying two Indian ultimatums, the first 20 rock-throwing bugle-blowing, anti-Red Chinese finally submitted to Communist interviews. The explanations began more than seven hours behind schedule.

They originally were to have started Sept. 26 but were delayed by wrangling over facilities.

An Indian spokesman said the 10 Chinese would be returned to the Reds in a ceremony Thursday night at Panmunjom.

"OPEN HOUSE" IS PLANNED LATER AT COUNTY HOME

Plans for an "Open House" in connection with completion of construction of the new annex at the county home were formulated tentatively by the county commissioners Wednesday afternoon.

Actual date for the "open house" to which everyone is invited could not be set pending the arrival and placement of some of the furniture for the new section of the county home. Clark L. Fetters, chairman of the board of commissioners, said the dressers that will be placed in each of the new rooms have been shipped according to the manufacturer, but have not arrived.

The "open house" will be held over a weekend after the furniture arrives and is placed. Only a small amount of work by the builder remains to be completed. After that will be the final inspection by the state department and then the new section will be ready for use.

To Insulate Spotter Stations

A completely new interior has been built at the "annex building" replacing a section that was constructed of brick, dungeon-like cells that once were used to confine the county's insane. The entire interior of the structure was torn out, and only the outer walls of the building retained. Then an entirely new interior, on a steel frame, was installed. New furniture, new bed linens, new desks, all have been purchased for the new section.

The commissioners also voted to have the two spotter stations in the county, the one on Bonneauville Hill here and the other at York Springs, insulated. The electric

The following April they moved to their present home where Mr. Epley has practiced general blacksmithing. For many years he shod all of the horses at the Hanover Shoe Farms with handmade shoes. In recent years his hand-wrought iron articles, especially candelabra, ornamental house railings and chimney letters have become widely popular.

They have two daughters, Martha, wife of the Rev. Luther Straley, Athens, N. Y., and Geraldine, wife of the Rev. Ralph Sloop, of New Cumberland, Pa., and one granddaughter, Miss Jean Sloop, now a graduate student at the Eastman School of Music, Rochester, N. Y.

The new store doubles the size of the previous G. C. Murphy establishment, and gives it a completely modern interior. DEMONSTRATION OF EQUIPMENT BUSIES FIREMEN

Gettysburg's firemen spent so much time on the demonstration of new fire fighting equipment Wednesday evening that they postponed their meeting scheduled to follow the demonstration, until next Wednesday night.

The demonstration was described as a success by firemen who observed use of new types of nozzles and such chemicals as foam and "wet water" in combating blazes set at the brick yard.

Morris Gitlin, proprietor of the yard which is now used as a salvage center, set fires in four old automobiles for the demonstration. Gasoline and oil was mixed with water in a pit dug for the purpose to create another type of fire and nozzles were used on lines off the Mack pumper and the aerial ladder truck to show spray and fog effects in fighting fire.

GETTYSBURG IS FEATURED ON TV

Gettysburg was featured prominently Wednesday evening on the "This Is Your Life" television show when it honored Mrs. Jessie Matthews Vann, publisher of the Pittsburgh Courier.

Mrs. Vann is a native of Adams County and a one-time resident of Gettysburg. She was born near Biglerville and later lived near Gettysburg along the Taneytown Rd.

Mrs. Vann expressed her surprise that she was selected to appear on the telecast, telling Ralph Edwards, the master of ceremonies, "I never did anything that would warrant this."

Her life story was introduced with a drawing of Pickett's charge and the singing of Battle Hymn of the Republic. Edwards said: "It is symbolic that Mrs. Vann, who has done so much for the advancement of the Negro should be born near Gettysburg." Pictures were shown of her birthplace and home here and the school she attended at the corner of Franklin and High Sts.

Mrs. Edna N. Reed, 204 W. High St., appeared first as a voice, then in person on the program, to give details of her younger sister's life. Mrs. Vann and her sister, Mrs. Reed, were orphaned when Mrs. Vann was three. At the age of 11 Mrs. Vann left here to live with a brother in Harrisburg, and later went to Pittsburgh, where she married the founder of the Pittsburgh Courier. She has been its publisher since her husband's death.

A telegram of congratulations from President Eisenhower to Mrs. Vann was read at the conclusion of the broadcast.

of the seats will be available on a first come, first served basis. In the event of an overflow crowd, the basement of the church has been wired for loudspeakers. A loudspeaker will be located in the SCA building and another amplifier will be placed outside the SCA building for those who may prefer to be out-of-doors, on the porch of the church or the steps of the SCA building.

Work on the structure began May 13, 1951, with a ground breaking ceremony.

Chapel Is 151 Feet Long

The cornerstone, from the mines of Solomon in the Holy Land, and presented by Dr. and Mrs. Henry W. A. Hanson, was placed November 3, 1951.

The colonial type brick structure at the northeast corner of the intersection of N. Washington and Stevens Sts., is 151 feet long and 84 feet high. In Georgian style, the building is topped by a white spire surmounted by a stainless steel cross that rises 140 feet in the air. Its main entrance is by a wide portico with four large Doric columns and a flagstone base. Three wide doorways lead into the narthex. To the right of the main entrance of the narthex is a marble plaque in honor of Gettysburgians who have served or are serving in India.

Large Mural

Three red mahogany doors surmounted by white fluted paneling, lead from the narthex into the nave. Inside the church the dominant colors are buff, blue and white. Behind the altar is a large mural depicting a large figure of Christ blessing a graduating student as he leaves the chapel. Christ is presented pictorially in the manner characteristic of Thorwaldsen, the great Danish sculptor of the early nineteenth century. The mural is executed in Venetian mosaic, consisting of many thousands of small squares of marble with a sprinkling of glass squares for accent. Most of the pieces are cut to the measure of one-fourth to five-eighths of an inch square. The quotation: "I Am the Way, the Truth, and the Life: No one cometh into the Father but by Me" is inscribed under the mural in gold glass tesserae.

DEMONSTRATION

ment used. Ervin Houck, Hanover, in charge of the demonstration, spoke from Truck 2, so that his voice would be amplified over the speaker on Truck 4 for the demonstration.

One of the nozzles provided a thick fog, covering an area about 30 feet in length and about as many feet in depth when used on the aerial ladder. Another nozzle produced a spray of such fine particles that firemen could use it to "walk in on" an electric fire hurling up to 200,000 volts of power without danger of the electricity following the water back at the firemen at the nozzle.

The foam demonstration proved very effective against the gasoline, oil and water fire. Flames blazed 30 feet high after the water and oil was set afire, but the foam snuffed out the blaze in seconds.

Probably the most effective part of the demonstration was the use of "wet water." Three cars were set afire. One hose used water into which the wetting material was introduced, another hose hurled plain water without any wetting agent employed. The men using the "wet water" put out the blaze in two of the cars and then went over to put out the third against which the firemen with the other hose had been pouring water.

"WELL DONE"

When my days come to their ending . . . and my life has ebbed away . . . I desire only one thing . . . of the people who delay . . . I don't wish for flowery phrases . . . for what good will they do then . . . nor do I want for sympathy . . . from most unfriendly men . . . I'd rather have the flowers now . . . and all the loving care . . . for it is now I need real friends . . . and not when life is bare . . . it's funny when someone has died . . . how friends often appear . . . but when their help was needed most . . . they never were found near . . . and knowing this I wish to state . . . to those who will remain . . . just pass me by and say "well done" . . . and I will not complain.

MASQUERADE AT CLASS FUNCTION

The business session preceded the social period. Mrs. Suahanna Starner, vice president, was in charge. Mrs. Bernice Yealy was piano accompanist for group singing. Poems were read by Mrs. Rita Greene, Mrs. Frances Duttera and Mrs. Mary Erb and there was group prayer. The Bible discussion was led by Mrs. Eleanor Tressler. Germany Quits Disarmament Conference: Berlin, Oct. 14 (AP) — By one of the boldest strokes of official action since his assumption of power, Chancellor Hitler today served notice on the League of Nations that Germany will withdraw two years hence, and on the disarmament conference that the reich no longer finds it possible to continue its attendance.

To demonstrate to the world that all Germany stands behind the chancellor's foreign power, President von Hinhenburg ordered the dissolution of the Reichstag and all state parliaments and set new Reichstag's elections for November 12.

The Reichstag balloting will be so conducted that a vote for Nazi members will at the same time mean an indorsement of the government's course.

"Lame Duck" Sessions End: Washington, Oct. 14 (AP)—The 20th amendment to the constitution, abolishing the so-called lame duck sessions of Congress, becomes effective tomorrow with two unique records in American history.

Besides changing the date for the inauguration of the president from March 4 to January 20, and wiping out the age-old lame duck session that used to begin on the first Monday in December after the fall election, the amendment established a record of being the only change in the constitution that had the unanimous approval of the 48 states. The speed of ratification set another mark.

Today's Talk

By GEORGE MATTHEW ADAMS

THE "OLD TIMERS"

Intelligent youth listens to his elders—that is, if he supplements his intelligence with wisdom. Somewhere about the age of forty the son has an idea that dawns upon him, and that is that "the old man" is quite a smart individual! People in the country have rare respect for the "old timer."

When I was working my way through college in a Midwestern town, I was a night clerk in a local hotel. It was when they had a big stove in the lobby, and on cold winter days there was always a gathering about it, the same as there is today in many a rural country store. When I was not otherwise engaged I used to sit with the ones about the big stove and listen. The interesting ones were those who had learned much from life. I learned much from the talk of these men who had known struggle and many a defeat, but they were not complainers. They accepted life with courage.

It was a joy to listen to the talk of the blacksmith, the carpenter, and the harness maker, when I was a boy. They were the "intellectuals" to me. The editor of the county weekly newspaper was my friend, and showed me the magic behind getting the news and printing it in his paper. Local news was pre-eminent. He dealt with human beings, their lives and fortunes, so he talked about people. There was always a farmer, a city official, or some other character who had to have a talk with "ye editor."

During the summers that I spent on a farm the "old timer" was always one who was looked up to and often greatly beloved. In those earlier times there were no automobiles no radio or TV and not too many telephones, so that people did a great deal of serious thinking. The "old timer" was an oracle! People paid attention to what he had to say. They missed him when his presence was no more. There may come a time when we are noted as an "old timer." That will be a time for us to acknowledge the compliment in good grace!

Tomorrow Mr. Adams will talk on the subject: "Story of a Man's Will."

DISAPPOINTED SURGEON

The surgeon sadly said to me
When I had told my ills:
"Another doctor you should see.
This is a case for pills.

I'm sorry, but the truth I state,
You've come to me in vain.
There is no need to operate
To make you well again.

"I'm one who only cuts and sews
When cause for that is sure.
You'd better go to one who knows
What pills and tinctures cure."

A tear I noticed in his eye.
Twas hard for him to say.
But I was light of heart and I
Went smiling on my way.

YOUTH ON TRIAL SLASHES WRISTS WITH DISHES

MANCHESTER, Vt. (AP)—Trial of Benjamin Larabee, 22, of Williamstown, Mass., charged with assault with intent to kill a state trooper was delayed today by what Sheriff John Maloney said was a suicide attempt by the youth in his Bennington jail cell.

Maloney said Larabee slashed both his wrists with sharp-edged pieces of breakfast dishes which he had broken.

Dr. Abraham Moskovitz took several stitches in the wounds which he described as superficial. Larabee later was taken from the jail to the courthouse here for resumption of the trial.

Larabee and his brother, Richard, 16, also similarly charged, were arrested in Pottsville, Pa., after a police pursuit through Vermont, Massachusetts and New Jersey last August.

One On Trial

Only Benjamin Larabee is currently on trial. Prosecution of charges against Richard is scheduled to follow Benjamin's trial.

A Pottsville, Pa., court stenographer, Stephen Sacinelli, was called to testify yesterday but a bench conference presumably on admissibility of his records, delayed his appearance.

Sacinelli was to have testified about alleged statements made by the Larabee brothers after they were captured.

State police Cpl. Foster Corliss testified yesterday that he was unable to say whether two persons who fled when he approached them last Aug. 16 in Pownall were men or women.

Corliss said he and trooper Robert Forrest tried "to get behind" the two suspects in the Mason Hill area of Pownall, where the Larabees are accused of breaking into camps.

Corliss said one of the two persons fired a shot which wounded him in the leg. Corliss said he then fired three times at each of the pair but they escaped.

Under questioning Corliss said he could not identify the Larabees as the two at whom he fired. He said he thought they were but conceded that the suspects could have been women dressed as men.

Shippensburg Opposes GHS Here Friday; Biglerville Host To Manheim Central

Shippensburg High School's gridders, winless in five outings this season, come here Friday evening to tangle with Gettysburg High's unbeaten Warriors in a non-conference game. The Greyhounds could salvage much from a drab season by pulling an upset but the Warriors are likely to have other ideas.

A big night is scheduled for Musselman Memorial Field, Biglerville, where the Canners meet Manheim Central in a Conference of the Roses game. Parent's Night, an annual affair at Biglerville, will be observed.

Coach Howard Shoemaker, of the Warriors, commenting on the coming game, said: "I hope the boys learned a lesson at Waynesboro last week on over-confidence about a game. I think they did. The spirit in drills this week has been fine and we are ready."

Two changes may take place in the Warrior lineup. Roger Crouse, guard, is practically certain to miss the game due to a pulled muscle and either Sam Staley or Cloyd Spence will fill his post. Carl Westerdahl, center, has been indisposed for several days and if he is unable to play will be replaced by Joe Bushey. Bobby Rohrbaugh, halfback, is again scheduled to confine his duties mostly to defensive work. The remainder of the squad is in good condition.

Shippensburg has had rough sailing this year under its new coach, Clair Baughman. The Greyhounds, who along with Waynesboro, were permitted to drop two South Penn Conference foes and yield title consideration, have lost five straight games including Burham-Derry, 7-40; Waynesboro, 6-25; Hanover, 13-14; Chambersburg, 6-35, and Washington, 6-38.

With nothing to lose and a world of glory to be gained by stopping an unbeaten team, the Greyhounds are ready to shoot the works at the Warriors.

Experienced Backs

Coach Baughman will depend largely on a set of experienced backs including Dick Angle, Ben Wheeler, Gerald Rosenberry, Bill Bard, Tommy Kling and Jack Tritt.

The Greyhounds showed their best form of the season when they bowed by a single point to the Hanover High Nighthawks. They figure if they can regain the form shown in that game they have an excellent chance of pulling the scholastic upset of the year.

Biglerville Program

Friday's game will be the 26th in the series between the schools which began in 1920. The Warriors have won 17, lost six while two ended in ties. The last time Shippensburg won from a Gettysburg team was in 1945 by a 31-0 count.

Parents of the Senior and Junior High School squads, as well as of members of the band, will be guests of honor at the Biglerville-Manheim game.

The program will open at 6:30 o'clock with an intra-squad game between Junior High players.

At 7:30 o'clock the band, wearing the new black and gold uniforms for the first time, will present a special program, the Bigler - Manheim game being scheduled to get underway at 8 o'clock.

Coach Gene Haas of the Canners rates the game as a toss-up with breaks likely to decide the outcome. Manheim, still looking for its first victory over a Biglerville team, holds a 2-0-1 record in conference play.

Burnell Dehoff, fullback, will definitely miss the game due to a sprained ankle and will be replaced by Jim May and Bryant Roe who will alternate at his post. Bill Sheaffer, end, will probably be limited to his time of play because of a leg injury. Don Kuhn will probably move out from tackle to fill the wing spot, on the offense.

The morale of the Biglerville team lifted greatly following the 14-0 win at West York last week and a determined group of Canners will take the field to present their parents a victory.

Littlestown High School has an open date this week, next meeting Kennard-Dale at Littlestown on October 23.

Delone Catholic waits until Sunday afternoon for its game. York Catholic will play at McSherrystown where Homecoming will be observed.

The only South Penn Conference game which will figure in the standing will be played at Hanover Friday night where Chambersburg will be the visiting team.

On the scholastic program for Friday will be the following games: Middletown at Carlisle; Waynesboro at Hershey, and New Cumberland at Mechanicsburg.

PIRATES SECURE DALE LONG, TOP PACIFIC PLAYER

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — Hollywood first baseman Dale Long, voted the most valuable player in the Pacific Coast League last season, has been dealt to the Pittsburgh Pirates in exchange for cash and southpaw pitcher Roger Bowman.

The hefty lefthander, a potent weapon in Hollywood's pennant winning machine, hit a modest .272 but hammered out 35 home runs and batted in 116 runs.

Long had brief trials in 1951 with the Pirates and the St. Louis Browns and came to Hollywood from New Orleans in 1952.

Second Deal

Bowman, used primarily in relief for Pittsburgh, appeared in 30 games. He had an 0-4 record. He pitched for Oakland in the PCL last year and turned in a no-hitter against Hollywood July 3.

The deal was the second disclosed in 24 hours by Hollywood's president, Robert H. Cobb. Pitcher George O'Donnell, who won 20 and lost 12 for the Stars, goes to Pittsburgh in ecxhange for catcher Joe Rossi and cash.

O'Donnell came here from New Orleans, where he had an 8-1 record in 1952.

Rossi, formerly with Portland, Ore., will give Hollywood added catching strength and probably mean that Manager Bobby Bragan can go off the active list.

HERSHEY STOPS JUNIOR HIGH GRIDDERS 12-6

The Gettysburg Junior High School football team dropped its first game of the season after two previous victories when Hershey Junior High won a 12-6 decision Wednesday afternoon at Hershey.

Hershey scored touchdowns in the second and third period via passes which were followed by runs of 30 and 60 yards by the receivers.

Gettysburg's score came in the final period when Little took a Hershey punt and streaked about 35 yards for a score. A pass for the point was batted down.

Coach Rogers Herr's lads muffed several scoring opportunities. On the first play of the game the locals recovered a fumble on the Hershey 13-yard line but on the next play handed the ball back to the Trojans via a fumble.

Twice during the game Gettysburg pass receivers dropped the ball when they were alone and back of the Hershey secondary defense.

The line play of the Herr-men was excellent but the running attack did not show as much speed as in the past.

Waynesboro will play here next Thursday evening at 7 o'clock.

The lineups:

Gettysburg

Ends—Wherley, G. Keefer.
Tackles—Re, G. Naugle.
Guards—F. Naugle, Scott.
Center—Hess.
Backs—Little, Washington, Baltzley, Hoak, Fridinger, K. Keefer, J. Crist.

Hershey

Ends—Schiller, Lingle, Stump.
Tackles—Tapparro, Adams, Miller.
Guards—Lingle, Seaman, Hoover, Heaps, Binner.
Center—Byler.
Backs—Foust, Daniels, Longreen, Custer, Stuart.

Score by periods:

EARL SANDE IS WINNER AGAIN; COMEBACK AT 54

NEW YORK (AP) — Jockey Earl Sande had his first winner since 1932 today, and he was as happy as when he won three Kentucky Derbies in the days when he was the toast of the American turf.

The 54-year-old rider, who began a comeback Oct. 5 because he "ran out of eating money," won the seventh race yesterday at Jamaica, scoring with the 12-1 shot Miss Weesie over the 8-10 favorite, Will Be There, ridden by Eddie Arcaro.

"I wish everyone in the world was as happy as I am right now," said Sande as he brushed away a tear and smiled to the crowd jamming around the winner's circle.

Tries Eight Times

Since his comeback, Sande had ridden eight races up to yesterday. He finished third with Honest Bread at Belmont Oct. 5, his first race in 21 years.

Honest Bread was the second choice in the third race yesterday, but Sande was beaten by a nose at the wire by White Hart.

He cried a bit then, and said:

"Once I get one (a winner) I'll lose some of this nervous tension. It makes me over anfxous and I make mistakes. I'll get one, and then I'll feel better."

He got it in the seventh, and with a masterful ride that had the crowd howling and cheering with the greatest demonstration at a New York track in the memory of old-timers.

The time for the six furlongs was 1:13 1-5 and the winner, owned by T. F. White, paid $27.10.

"She's a sweetheart," Sande said later.

"I felt like this was the triple crown all rolled up into one, and that I won it."

Knockdown Wins For Dan Bucceroni

ST. LOUIS (AP)—Dan Bucceroni, a rough, free-swinging bout with rapid-fire Jimmy Slade behind him, now is looking forward with keener ambition to a possible first-of-the-year fight with heavyweight champion Rocky Marciano.

His televised victory over Salde, while unanimous, hinged on a fourth-round knockdown that had the 26-year-old New York Negro on the mat for a count of nine.

Both judges and the referee turned in cards that showed Danny won the decision with a combination left hook and rousing right to the head that floored Slade in the only knockdown of the fight.

Referee Dick Young and Judge Howard Hess scored it 51-49. Judge Fred Connell gave it to Bucceroni, 54-46.

Five Schoolboy Grid Games Highlight Weekend Schedule

By DICK HOENIG

HARRISBURG (AP) — Traditional rivalries push into the spotlight this weekend, the sixth and midway point of the 1953 schoolboy football parade.

These are the games that usually end the unexpected way. Previous records mean nothing and more often than not the so-called favorite is on the short end when the final whistle blows.

The top five games before kickoff time:

Pottsville-Lebanon—A honey between powers of the East and Central Penn. Pottsville should muster just enough push to get past this Cedar stumbling block for win No. 6 and a good boost toward a perfect season.

West Scranton-Blakley — Scranton's invaders, beaten only once since 1951, are in for a night against an arch Lackawanna league foe. Blakely has lost only to defending league champion Old Forge but the choice is Scranton by seven.

Reading Is Favorite

Reading-Bethlehem — It's been Reading 26-21 two years straight and that seems about right for this season too when the Central Penn leader takes on a Big Three club that has lost two of its last three.

Conemaugh Township-Windber—The survivor of this one between two all winners (both 5-0) and tied for the lead with Burnham Derry could emerge Western Conference kingpin. Windber rates a slight edge.

Lock Haven-Lewistown—The call is for a repeat of last year's Lock Haven victory, enabling the Bobcats to continue unbeaten and untied.

Last week's statewide choices came out 76.5 per cent correct in 51 tries for a season average of 75.9 per cent. This week's predictions:

East— Easton over Allentown Central Catholic, Phillipsburg (N. J.) over Allentown, Coaldale over Hazleton Township, Mahanoy Township over Frackville, Mahanoy City over Ashland, Wilkes-Barre GAR over Hanover Township, Minersville over Kulpmont, Mount Carmel over Shenandoah, Swoyersville over Scranton Central, Archbald over Jessup, Nanticoke over Wilkes-Barre Coughlin, Tamaqua over Nesquehoning, Old Forge over Olyphant, St. Clair over West Hazleton, Lower Merion over Haverford, Upper Darby over Ridley Township, Abington over Collingdale, Norristown over Chester, Duryea over Pittston, Pottstown over Phoenixville.

Central—York over Harrisburg John Harris, Lancaster over Williamsport, Steelton over Harrisburg William Penn, Chambersburg over Hanover, Gettysburg over Shippensburg, Hershey over Waynesboro, Mechanicsburg over New Cumberland, Carlisle over Middletown, Jersey Shore over Bellefonte, Burnham Derry over State College, Danville over Northumberland, Hazleton over Shamokin, Milton Hershey over Coatesville.

West—Uniontown over Washington, Sharon over Butler, McKeesport over Johnstown, Clairton over Ellwood City, Vandergrift over Penn, Harbrack over Ambridge, Beaver Falls over Rochester, New Castle over Farrell, Donora over Pittsburgh Central Catholic, Aliquippa over Midland, Corry over Titusville, Oil City over Meadville, Grove City over Franklin, Bradford over Warren, Greenville over Millcreek, Adams Township over Ferndale, Punxsutawney over Clearfield, Dubois over Curwensville, Bellwood-Antis over Mount Union, Philipsburg over Tyrone, Shade Township over Richland Township.

Champ Carter In Chavez Bout Tonight

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Lightweight champion Jimmy Carter of New York faces a busy and probably a profitable evening tonight when he meets aging Carlos Chavez of Los Angeles in a non-title bout billed for 10 rounds at the Olympic Auditorium.

Tonight's bout, which will not be broadcast or televised, is expected to attract a near sellout of 10,000, and gate receipts of around $15,000.

Carter is the betting choice, but Chavez, long popular with the Mexican fight fans, undoubtedly will be the sentimental favorite.

The Gettysburg College girls won their second straight field hockey match by defeating Millersville State Teachers College 5-1 here Wednesday. Lock Haven will play here on Saturday.

Joseph Biros, a graduate of Gettysburg College, has been named as basketball coach at North York High School to succeed William N. Craley who resigned. Biros was formerly coach of the North York Junior High squad.

Touch Football Is Fatal To Student

MANHATTAN, Kan. (AP) — John Matthew Holden of Wyncote, Pa., a Philadelphia suburb, died yesterday following a collision with another student in an intramural touch football game at Kansas State College.

Acting Dean Paul M. Young, said the youth, a freshman agriculture student, collapsed after colliding with another player while trying to catch a pass.

Young said the college physician had not fixed the exact cause of death but that he understood the boy died as a result of the accidental injury.

ENTRY FEE AT INDIANAPOLIS IS DOUBLED

INDIANAPOLIS (AP)—The Indianapolis Motor Speedway today upped the entry fee for the annual 500-mile auto race next May 30 from $250 to $500 and raised some ticket prices.

The fee listed on entry blanks mailed today will go into the prize fund. The speedway didn't say so but it was rumored it wants to squeeze out some elderly race cars which just clutter up the grounds.

Most seat prices were unchanged but some were increased from $6.25 to $7.50 and others from $12 to $15. Seats in the new grandstand now under construction will be $15 on the lower level and $30 on the upper deck.

New Rule Listed

The speedway announced all cars will be inspected for adequate ventilation, a new rule apparently resulting from the heat exhaustion death of Carl Scarborough in the 1953 race.

Another new rule cuts the maximum displacement of Diesel engines from 402.68 cubic inches to 335.57. That compared with a top of 183.06 for supercharged conventional engines.

Speedway President Wilbur Shaw said rookie drivers next year must take a 100-mile test at speeds up to 125 miles an hour, 5 miles faster than this year.

CHAMP EASILY PASSES OPENER

BALTIMORE (AP)—Home pro and defending champion Walt Romans and medalist Rod Munday of York, Pa., advanced through first and second round play in the Baltimore Open Golf Tournament with little difficulty yesterday.

Romans, seeking his third open victory, eliminated Spencer Overton and Frank Michaelk, both by a 4 and 3 margin.

Munday ousted amateur Ed Steffee, 5 and 4, and then turned back Bill Crabbe, Washington pro, 4 and 3.

Two Pennsylvanians, Howard Turner of Philmont C. C., in suburban Philadelphia, and Lynn Creason of Harrisburg, were participants in the longest extra-hole match yesterday.

Turner won the first round 1 up in 22 holes and then beat Billy Buppert, Baltimore amateur, 1 up in 20 holes.

Seven pros and one amateur remained for today's quarter-final round.

LEGAL STATUS OF BASEBALL BEFORE COURT

WASHINGTON (AP)—A prime question before the Supreme Court today is: Has baseball in the past 30 years become involved in interstate commerce within the meaning of the anti-trust laws?

If the court says no, organized baseball will go on generally making its own rules as it has since the days of Abner Doubleday.

If the court says yes, baseball is in interstate commerce, three cases appealed to it will be ordered to trial in federal district courts.

The Supreme Court took the matter under advisement yesterday after two days of hearings. A decision is not likely before spring.

Judging by the manner in which the case unfolded before the nine justices, the big bone of contention is the role of radio and television in baseball.

In 1922, the Supreme Court ruled that baseball is a sport, not a business within the meaning of the anti-trust laws. It thus put baseball outside the province of federal anti-trust jurisdiction.

Attorneys for two minor league players and a minor league club-owner contended that television has made organized baseball a commercial enterprise.

Baseball attorneys said this is not true. They emphasized that accounts of ball games were transmitted in 1922 by Western Union.

"There is no difference," said Atty. Raymond T. Jackson, "between the rights issued by club-owners to the Western Union people then and the radio and television people now."

Atty. Frederic A. Johnson, representing minor league player Walter Kowalski, contended there is "immense" difference. Western Union never paid more than about $20,000 for those rights, he said, while TV people paid 75 million dollars this year.

Mention Pee Wee Reese As Possible Dressen Successor; Await Chuck's Final Decision

BROOKLYN (AP)—Charlie Dressen still insisting today he will not return as Brooklyn manager for anything less than a two-year term, may be succeeded by Dodger Captain Pee Wee Reese.

Reese, a favorite of Brooklyn President Walter O'Malley and long regarded as a possible future successor to Dressen, indicated strongly he would be receptive if the job were offered him.

"I always said before that I wouldn't consider a manager's job while I still have some good playing years left," said the 34-year-old star shortstop. "But now this thing . . . I don't know . . . Things look a little different now."

Dressen Gets Week

Reese expressed surprise at the ousting of Dressen yesterday.

"I never imagined anything like this would happen," he said. "I don't want to say anything right now that might be misconstrued. Charlie is a great manager and I hope he comes back next year."

Asked point blank whether he was considering Reese, O'Malley said:

"That's something we'll discuss in a week or so. Right now we're going to give Dressen a week to think it over. That's the agreement we made yesterday. He might change his mind. At least I hope so."

Meanwhile, Dressen seemed to be going around in circles, just about as much as the baseball public, which was startled by the announcement yesterday that the two-time pennant-winning manager had split with the Dodgers because of a disagreement in the length of the contract.

Dressen, flushed with two pionships, had demanded a three-year contract for $5,000 per season. O'Malley rejected it and countered with an offer of a one-year pact at an increase in salary from $35,000 to $42,500. Dressen refused it and attempted to compromise for a two-year contract at O'Malley's figure.

10-WEEK DUCK SEASON OPENS

HARRISBURG —Many Pennsylvania hunters were training their sights on the skies at noon today as the 10-week open season on ducks and other water fowl begins.

The season, with various dates for some species of water fowl, closes at sundown, Saturday, Dec. 12.

Hunting is legal daily from half an hour before sunrise until the sun goes down. No hunting is allowed in the state on Sundays.

Because the regular small game season opens Saturday, Oct. 31, water fowl hunting will not begin that morning until 9 a. m. Each hunter is required to purchase a $2 federal stamp in addition to the regular $3.15 state hunting license. The federal stamps are sold at post offices.

The season dates: Ducks, geese and coots, Oct. 15-Dec. 12; brant, Oct. 15-Oct. 29; woodcock, Oct. 2-Nov. 10, and Wilson's or jacksnipes, Oct. 2-Oct. 16.

The federal stamp is not required to hunt sora, rails, gallinules, woodcock, Wilson's, jacksnipes and doves.

stone age tried to do what all artists have done since the beginning, to point out the beautiful things in nature and life to those who haven't time to see them."

"In the nineteenth century, the art of water coloring came into disuse and was considered a little effeminate," continued the speaker. "But along came Winslow Homer, the well-known artist, and made it a man's job."

Describes Brushes, Paper

Professor Robinson, who studied art at the University of Georgia under Lamar Dodd and at the New York Art Student's League under Ernest Fiene, described the types of brushes and paper one may use when water coloring. He explained that different types of earth mixed with water could be used as easily as the small colored cakes sold to the water color artist. He concluded his talk with the painting of several pictures, one of which was a green, blue and brown landscape to which the artist managed to add a pixey touch.

Professor Robinson, who came to Gettysburg College this year from Wagner College, Staten Island, N. Y., where he was head of the art department for five years, also taught art at Judson College, Ala., for two years. He has been art instructor at the University of Alabama and has won national and regional awards. Active in art clubs and a member of Who's Who in the east, the artist is a member of Phi Beta Kappa Fraternity. He has given 25 one-man shows. Mrs. Stanley Hull, chairman of the Fine Arts Committee, introduced Professor Robinson.

Enroll New Members

Mrs. Eugene R. Hartman, secretary, and Mrs. Mark A. Eckert, treasurer, read their reports. Mrs. Philip F. Noble, second vice president, read the correspondence in the absence of Mrs. Guile W. Lefever. $10 was donated to the U. N. fund at the board meeting which was held at 1:30 o'clock before the regular session at the Y. Mrs. A. L. Leibensperger, vice president of the South Central District, sent a communication commending the club on its "outstanding yearbook and interesting program" for the year.

Mrs. R. D. Wickerham, membership chairman, announced the following new members: Mrs. Kenneth P. Hull, Mrs. Harold Ecker, Mrs. C. H. Hett, Mrs. S. Richard Lemberg, Mrs. James A. Martin and Mrs. Harry Price.

Mrs. M. K. Eckert, parliamentarian, read a list of proposed revisions to the by-laws and constitution of the club to be voted upon at the November meeting. Mrs. G. R. Larkin, International Relations chairman, announced that there will be a joint meeting of the local and Littlestown clubs at the next session at which Gettysburg College international students will be guests. Mrs. Leibensperger will be present as will Mrs. S. J. McCartney, new president of the Pennsylvania Federation of Clubs.

Benefit Party Friday

Mrs. Clarence C. Smith, of the finance committee, presented the budget report, and Mrs. Charles W. Wolf, welfare chairman, asked members to bring materials for making aprons and other articles to the next meeting as part of a project in connection with the Adams County Home Auxiliary. Mrs. Charles W. Orem, president, who presided at the session, reminded members of the benefit bridge and card party to be held at the Moose Home Friday afternoon at 2 o'clock. She also reported on the South Central District meeting held September 29 at the Woman's Club in York.

After the business a social hour was held during which tea was served in an autumn setting. Gourds, pumpkins and chrysanthemums formed a floral centerpiece on the table and green and gold napkins carried out a fall motif. The hostesses included: Mrs. Russell A. Campbell, chairman, Mrs. W. D. Hartshorne, Mrs. Kermit O. Deardorff, Mrs. M. C. Jones, Mrs. George Gilbert and Mrs. Henry M. Scharf.

PICKS ALABAMA, SPARTANS AND GOPHERS TO WIN

By HAROLD CLAASEN

NEW YORK (AP)—The past week has been spent in conjuring up a double, extra-special, peachy whammy to neutralize the upset fever which threatened the football schedule last week. The whammy was brewing in time to bring in 36 correct picks and nine incorrect ones a week ago. That's an average of .800.

The season's record is 123 correct, 36 incorrect for .769.

Here are this week's picks:

Notre Dame over Pittsburgh: Pitt has come a long way since the loss to West Virginia but the Panthers would need a year's time to get into Notre Dame's class.

Picks Alabama, Gophers

Alabama over Tennessee: Your TV morsel of the day. Tennessee's offense has been below par all season while Alabama's has been overhauled since that surprise setback by Mississippi Southern.

Minnesota over Illinois: Illinois spilled Ohio State last Saturday in one of the day's major upsets. Lightning can't strike twice in the same spot, they say, and so the Gophers are the choice.

Michigan State over Indiana: If it isn't Evan Sloac, it is Leroy Bolden; if it isn't Bolden it is Tommy Yewic; and if it isn't Yewic it is anyone of a dozen other backs who are scoring for the Spartans.

Duke, Southern Cal

Duke over Army: The Southerners' line, from tackle to tackle, probably is as good as any in the country.

Southern California over Oregon State: State pays the penalty for being the next foe after the Trojans were held to a tie by Washington.

Maryland over North Carolina: Two unbeaten powers but Maryland's magnificient horde of backs gives it the edge.

Other Selections

Skipping over the others in a hurry:

FRIDAY NIGHT

Brigham Young over Utah State, Villanova over Detroit, West Virginia over George Washington, Fordham over Boston College.

SATURDAY

East: Rutgers over Brown, Yale over Cornell, Columbia over Harvard, Colgate over Dartmouth, Ohio State over Pennsylvania, Navy over Princeton, Penn State over Syracuse, Bucknell over Temple, Boston University over Brandeis.

South: Florida over the Citadel, Georgia Tech over Auburn, Mississippi over Tulane, Virginia Military over Virginia, Wake Forest over North Carolina State, Mississippi State over Kentucky, LSU over Georgia, Presbyterian over Davidson, Washington & Lee over Richmond, William & Mary over Virginia Tech.

Midwest: Wisconsin over Purdue, Michigan over Northwestern, Iowa over Wyoming, Nebraska over Miami (Fla.), Missouri over Iowa State, Colorado over Kansas State, Oklahoma over Kansas, Wichita over Drake, Tulsa over Hardin-Simmons.

Southwest: Texas Christian over Texas A & M, Rice over Southern Methodist, Baylor over Vanderbilt, Texas Tech over College of the Pacific, Texas over Arkansas.

Far West: Washington State over Idaho, UCLA over Stanford, Utah over Denver, Southern California over Oregon State, California over San Jose State, Marquette over Arizona.

PIGGLY WIGGLY HEAD EXPIRES

MEMPHIS, Tenn. (AP) — Clarence Saunders, the "Piggly Wiggly King" who started as a $4 a month grocery clerk and twice lost a fortune, died yesterday. He was 72.

A heart attack stilled his plans for a new-type mechanical grocery that he believed would put him "back in the million-dollar class within a year." He had been critically ill two weeks.

His Piggly Wiggly chain, forerunner of today's supermarkets, 36 years ago grew into a vast seven million dollar corporation with stores in hundreds of cities.

He lost the chain in 1923 in a spectacular "one-man battle" with Wall Street. He soon established a second chain known as the "Clarence Saunders, Sole Owner of My Name" stores. Successful for several years, the chain folded during the depression.

His newest store—the "Foodelectric"—was to be completely self-service, even to the customer adding up the bill.

It was to have gone into operation last month but was delayed by his illness.

NEW OXFORD — Mr. and Mrs. Walter Wolfgang have named their recently born son, Edwin Jesse. He was christened at the First Lutheran Church by the Rev. George E. Sheffer, as was Susan Elaine, young daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert Fridinger.

Dr. Gerald Krepps, Hanover, has purchased the Ellis Staub farm situated near the Pine Run schoolhouse and plans to make the farmhouse into a summer home for his family. The Staub family are now residing on "Seven Hundred," near here, where they bought a farm from the P. C. Hoffman estate.

A turkey supper will be held Saturday at the local fire hall by the Ladies Auxiliary of the fire company for the benefit of the building fund. Serving will start at 4 p.m.

Mrs. C. Clark Brown entertained fellow members of the local 500 club at her home Tuesday evening.

Rebecca Anne, elder daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ryland J. Robinson, who spent much of the summer as a surgical patient at Johns Hopkins Hospital, Baltimore, continues to improve.

Mrs. Peter C. Fleshman, near town, is considerably improved after a recent illness that confined her to bed for several days.

A public card party and refreshment sale will be held at the parochial school hall this evening by groups from the Rosary Society of the Catholic congregation.

The Rev. F. L. Canavan, a Jesuit Father from Woodstock, Md., spent the weekend at the local Catholic rectory to assist Father Philip J. Gergen, pastor, with the spiritual activities of the parish and to sing the high mass Sunday morning.

Kentucky had 468,000 more births than deaths between 1940 and 1950.

By Betty Blue

We look at the ads, too—especially for soaps and soap powders and detergents. They sure claim some pretty wonderful things for them, don't they? We say it'll clean walls and woodwork and bathrooms and things like that faster than any soap or powder or detergent. Here's why we make this claim. Bluko is liquid. It goes on faster—and it works faster. Nothing to rub off or rinse off. Wipe it on—off comes the dirt. Makes sense, doesn't it? Try Bluko. Don't expect miracles—just the best cleaning job you've ever gotten. That much we guarantee!

A dance will be held Friday evening at Basehoar's, N. Queen St., from 9 to 1 o'clock. The affair is for the public, under the sponsorship of the Mason and Dixon Memorial Post No. 6954, Veterans of Foreign Wars. Music will be provided by Maynard McKissick and his orchestra from Harrisburg. Free refreshmants will be served.

Mrs. C. C. Rebert, near town, was hostess to the Woman's Society of the Christian Service of the Centenary Methodist Church, for the October meeting on Tuesday evening when 19 members were in attendance. Devotions were led by Mrs. Leslie Yohn and the theme was "Faith of Our Fathers." There were group readings on the theme, Mrs. Yohn, vice president, conducted the business when plans were made for fund raising projects. Orders are now being taken by the members for Bowers peanut brittle and candy mints. Members were asked to complete their orders for Christmas cards so that they may be secured for distribution.

Change Meeting Date

It was announced that the next meeting will be held Monday, November 9, instead of Tuesday that week and Ruth McDannell, Harrisonville, who is the Conference Women's Society's rural worker, will be the guest speaker. The hostess committee for the meeting, which will be held at the church, will include Mrs. Samuel Bucke, Mrs. Robert Crist and Mrs. Fred Shull. Mr. and Mrs. Amidee K. Ecker, S. Queen St., and Miss Elva Crouse, Boyer St., visited on Sunday with the latter's brother, Victor Crouse, who is a patient in the Veterans Hospital in Butler.

Mrs. Anna B. Leach told of her activities during this part summer at Chautauqua, N. Y., at the monthly meeting of the Ladies' Aid Society of Redeemer's Reformed Church on Tuesday evening in the social hall of the church. Mrs. Leach spent eight weeks at Chautauqua and she told the group about the many different programs offered there, with emphasis on the religious phase, especially the daily sermons and lectures in different chapels.

The program opened with group singing for which Mrs. Frank E. Reynolds was piano accompanist. The Scripture was read and prayer offered by Mrs. Samuel W. Beck. Sally Basehoar played two piano solos, "The Magic Carpet of Dreams" and "1812 Overture." Mrs. Wilbur A. Bankert, president, conducted the business period. Reports were heard from Mrs. Frank E. Reynolds, secretary, and Mrs. Paul Crabbs, treasurer. The guess package was contributed by Mrs. John W. LeGore and received by Mrs. Lillian Zercher. SELL 103,765 LICENSES FOR DOE SEASON

HARRISBURG (AP) — The State Game Commission today posted the sold out sign on the sale of special hunting permits for the 1953 antlerless deer season Dec. 14-15.

A commission spokesman said that every one of the 103,765 special licenses placed on sale Oct. 1 in 66 of the 67 counties of Pennsylvania have been bought by hunters.

The permits, sold by county treasurers only, cost $1.15 but users also must own a regular state hunting license.

Reports received by the commission indicated that most of the licenses were grabbed up on the day they were put on sale. When they went on sale county courthouses across the state were jammed with eager hunters as long as six hours before daybreak.

Register Complaints

Many hunters registered complaints about the method of sale. Several Western Pennsylvania counties were late in receiving their allocation because of an express company strike but entire quotas went quickly when received.

The number of special permits placed on sale was less than 45 per cent the total issued for the three-day 1952 doe season. In reducing the season by one day, the commission said it was acting to "crop the annual surplus of deer." It allocated permits to each county except Philadelphia, where hunting is illegal, on the basis of what game is in the area.

Its action was designed "to ensure that no over-harvesting of antlerless deer will occur," the commission has epxlained.

The 6,000 licenses granted Potter County, largest allocation in the state, were gone in three days, the spokesman reported. Forty-three counties had more than 1,000 to sell. The supply in many counties ran out within hours or on the first day of the sale.

37,829 Killed In 1952

Last year's reported kill was 37,829 but the commission estimates the actual harvest was almost 55,000.

"It is anticipated the 1953 harvest will be considerably lower," commission officials have predicted.

Last season 224,000 special doe permits were issued, good only in the county purchased.

The first of Pennsylvania's three separate deer hunting seasons began Monday with the two-week special hunt for bow and arrow users only. The regular antlered deer or buck season will be from Nov. 30 to Dec. 12.

The commission has been under criticism for over a year because of the special antlerless deer season. Some hunters claim they cut the overall size of the deer herd too much.

Russians Boasted They Could Get 'Anything They Wanted' At Ft. Monmouth, Paper Says

NEW YORK (AP)—Testimony on the reported removal of top-secret the Ft. Monmouth, N. J., Signal Corps center has dovetailed with a charge that vital defense data from the base has been channeled to Russia for some time.

Testimony in the case was disclosed by Sen. McCarthy (R-Wis) after a closed hearing yesterday of his Senate permanent investigations subcommittee.

The charge that America's radar defense secrets have been flowing to the Soviet Union came from an unidentified German scientist quoted last night in a copyrighted New York story by the Chicago Tribune under the byline of William Edwards.

The Tribune said the scientist, who fled the East zone of Germany, told U. S. authorities in Western Germany:

"The Russians said that they could get anything they wanted out of Ft. Monmouth."

The Army announced recently, without elaboration, that five civilian employes at Ft. Monmouth had been suspended for security reasons.

Hearings Go On

McCarthy, whose committee continues closed hearings here today into possible Communist subversion in the center's radar laboratory, said yesterday that five other persons have been suspended in the past two days.

McCarthy, reporting he questioned a scientist friend of executed atom spy Julius Rosenberg and that the scientist admitted taking home 43 secret documents to "study up on his work" in 1946, had this to say concerning theft of radar data from Ft. Monmouth:

"We have completely convincing testimony that some of the top-secret missing documents regarding radar and other matters did turn up in the Eastern zone in Berlin."

However, the 43 documents which McCarthy's witness admitted taking home were recovered when Army agents raided the scientist's home that same year.

PUC CONTINUES PROBE OF RATES

HARRISBURG (AP)—The Public Utility Commission today continued until next Jan. 19 an investigation of a proposed $7,800 annual rate boost by the Trenton-Philadelphia Coach Co., Trenton, N. J.

The proposed boost would raise single fares between Philadelphia, Speedway, Oxford Valley, Fallsington and Morrisville by 15 cents from 30, 35, 40 and 50 cents respectively.

The one-way fare between Penndel and Fallsington would go up from 10 to 15 cents.

Government In Dilemma When Witnesses Refuse To Answer Questions From U.S. Probers

By JAMES MARLOW

WASHINGTON (AP) — Atty. Gen. Brownell illustrates once more the government's dilemma in trying to make witnesses before congressional committees answer questions about any Communist connections they might have.

He said yesterday he will back, with changes, a bill being considered by Congress to force such witnesses to answer. Should Congress pass it, the measure would be tested by the first balky witness. That could mean a long court fight.

The dilemma already has a long history. Witnesses wanting to duck questions about communism have taken refuge behind the First and Fifth Amendments to the Constitution. Their main reliance now is on the fifth, not the first.

Recall Hollywood Probe

Several years ago a committee asked 1 Hollywood writers about Communist tieups. Some of them said that under the First Amendment, which guarantees freedom of speech, they didn't have to answer.

They interpreted the guarantee of freedom of speech to mean also freedom of political belief. They argued the committee question was about their political belief and that under the First Amendment they didn't have to answer.

Was this excuse valid? Or was it being contemptuous of Congress? Anyone cited by Congress for contempt and then convicted in federal court can be jailed for a year and fined $1,000.

Turned To Fifth

Congress cited them for contempt and they were convicted. The higher courts upheld the conviction, ruling the First Amendment did not protect them from having to answer about Communist party membership.

Later witnesses turned to the Fifth Amendment to escape answering questions about communism with this argument: that anything they said might incriminate them. The fifth says a man can't be compelled to testify against himself.

And they've been getting away with it without being cited for contempt. How come? They could claim that, if they admitted party membership, for instance, they might find themselves eventually prosecuted under the Smith Act.

Dig Up 1857 Law

That act, passed in 1940, makes it a crime to teach conspiracy to overthrow the government. The government has convicted a number of top Communist leaders under the Smith Act.

But isn't there a law which says that what a man tells a congressional committee can't be used against him? There is. Congress passed it in 1857. It still stands. It says:

"No testimony given by a witness before a congressional committee shall be used as evidence in any criminal proceeding against him in court."

There's A Gimmick

Wouldn't it seem from the wording of that law that a witness could no longer claim protection of the Fifth Amendment, as an excuse for not answering, because what he said might incriminate him?

No, there's a gimmick. Under present law a man could admit federal crimes to a committee and his words before the committee could never afterwards be used against him in a court.

But there's nothing to prevent the FBI from picking up leads from his testimony, going out and finding information on which the government could then prosecute him without needing his testimony before a committee.

Senate Took Action

It's for this reason that a witness can use the Fifth Amendment. He can refuse to testify if, in so doing, he might provide leads that would in the end incriminate him.

To sew up this loophole—to make it harder for witnesses to use the Fifth Amendment and easier for committees to get information from them—the Senate last year passed a bill now awaiting House action. It would do this:

Enable a committee to promise a witness he would never be prosecuted in federal court for any crime he admitted before a congressional committee. If, once offered this sweeping immunity, he still tried to use the Fifth Amendment as an excuse for not answering, he could be cited for contempt.

Wants Power To Decide

In other words, Congress could then force a witness to testify. But there may be a gimmick here too. For example, suppose a witness admitted he was a Russian spy and had stolen valuable American secrets.

Once granted immunity by the committee, he could never thereafter be prosecuted for that espionage. But if what he said gave the government leads to another crime on which he did not testify, presumably he could be charged with that.

Instead of giving the committees power to grant immunity to witnesses, Brownell says, he wants Congress to let him decide when to grant it.

If such a law were passed, the Supreme Court certainly would have to decide whether or not it was constitutional.

In 1947 it took only 930 bushels of wheat to buy a farm tractor; now it takes about 1,300 bushels.

TOURING YANKS

was imprisoned, dramatically re-enacted the shackling of the "Father of the Confederacy" at the scene of the action. As a prelude he mused—"Our attraction here at Fort Monroe is Jefferson Davis—yours in Gettysburg is Lincoln. Odd that the two leading figures of the Civil War—so radically opposed to each other in life—should bring us so close together in death."

Set against a background of modern Americana, a strange theme from the dim pages of early United States history is daily enacted for the hundreds of visitors to Williamsburg. Here, a self-styled "unreconstructed Rebel," Mrs. Hallie Wermuth, directed the group along cobblestone streets and into the quaint shops of a colonial village—complete event to the Puritan dress of its inhabitants.

Engrossed by the realistic nature of their surroundings, the group walked almost silently through great council halls which were once presided over by the likes of James Madison, Thomas Jefferson, George Mason, Patrick Henry, and George Washington. Within a colonial apothecary shop, Charles Bender, local druggist, noted that Patrick Henry must have been consumptive. He pointed out a bill for an order of senna (a laxative) which was signed by Henry.

"Kissing-Kin"

E. E. (Jim) Wolf, of the Gettysburg Times Advertising Department, after viewing her statue at Jamestown, asked: "If we get lost do you think Poca-hunt-us?" Mrs. Hallie Wermuth: "We feel that you people from Gettysburg and we from the South are now 'kissing-kin.'" From the ledger of the trial of Captain William Kidd as seen in the Upper Council room in Williamsburg: "You shall be severely hanged by the neck until you are dead." The reply: "It is in truth a hard sentence. I am the only innocent man on trial here and have been perjured against."

After visiting both Jamestown and Williamsburg and learning that in addition to being tax free this was once a land where Indian women did all the work, Leroy Smith, News Agency, sadly commented: "Then the English came and spoiled it all."

At the conclusion of his service, Roger R. Hubbard, likable Greyhound bus driver, said: "In all my years as a bus driver I have never driven for a more cooperative or a finer group of citizens than you folks who have come south to represent the city of Gettysburg."

PORK PRICES DROP IN MANY STORES IN U. S.

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

If you've been passing up pork because of high prices, take another look this weekend. In many of the nation's foodstores, prices will be much lower than in recent weeks.

Reductions on pork cuts, the result of an increasing autumn rush of hogs to market, will be the outstanding feature at meat counters. However, lamb and beef prices will be lower, too, in a good many stores.

One chain reported it will slash pork chop prices by as much as 20 cents a pound in Philadelphia and Detroit and will make reductions ranging from 2 to 8 cents in stores from New York to Los Angeles. It also will feature pork roasts and smoked hams.

Lamb Coming Down

The New York division of another chain, which plans to feature both pork and lamb for the weekend, came up with some interesting price comparisons. It said lamb rib chops will be selling at its New York stores this weekend for 65 cents a pound against 99 cents a year ago, shoulder chops for 59 against 89, lamb loin chops for 95 against $1.15, loin end pork roast for 49 against 62 and rib end pork roast for 39 against 49 a year ago.

One store official commented that lamb prices have been coming down in the last few months but appear to be about as low now as they will get.

In many markets, prices of sirloin steak, rib roast and other beef cuts will be unchanged from last weekend, but there will be some reductions of two to eight cents a pound. Some stores will feature pot roast and beef liver.

Cabbage, Spinach Good

Frying chicken prices generally will be about the same, while eggs will edge up a couple of cents a dozen in some places.

Produce men picked cabbage and spinach as especially good buys this week. Other vegetables prominently mentioned included cauliflower, onions, potatoes, sweet potatoes and peppers—small peppers in particular.

Fruit prices tended higher, but apples of all varieties were named good buys. Grapes and avocados also were given the good buy label.

Scientists estimate there is about twice as much nickel in the earth's crust as copper, zinc and lead combined.

Petroleum products made up about 65 per cent of the tonnage shipped to U. S. troops in Korea during the fighting there.

56 ARRESTED IN DOPE RAIDS BY U. S. AGENTS

PITTSBURGH (AP)—Federal narcotics agents in a series of raids rounded up 56 persons early today in Pittsburgh's Hill District.

More than 100 federal agents, police and plainclothesman took part in the pre-dawn raid. So closely guarded was the operation that most of the raiders, with the expection of federal agents, didn't know of their mission until the last minute.

Top ranking officials asked them to assemble at Hunt Armory to view a police film. Once inside the doors were locked and the raiders briefed.

Squad cars hit from all directions. The agents moved quickly, grabbing suspects from streets, taverns, parked automobiles and known narcotic haunts.

Patrol wagons, spotted at strategic places, whisked prisoners back to the armory. At the armory, the suspects were searched, interrogated and booked on various charges.

Fingerprinted, Mugged

They also were fingerprinted and mugged. Most of them had been previously arrested on narcotics charges, police said.

The raids followed the arrest of an alleged interstate distributor of narcotics identified as Joseph Harper.

Federal agents said they arrested Harper and his wife, Bernice, also known as Bernice Sith, at the Greater Pittsburgh Airport.

Joseph M. Bransky, district supervisor of the federal narcotics division, said Harper was taken into custody after he attempted to deliver four ounces of heroin to a federal agent.

Bransky said agents spent over $3,000 for purchases of heroin and marijuana in their undercover work before the rais.

Harperr was held under $10,000 bond and his wife and 23 others—were jailed in default of $5,000 bail.

REALIGNMENT

Zeigler, Edward Korte and Charles Sardeson.

Varied programs and interests of the church were presented, first by the Rev. Dr. Dwight F. Putman, president of the Synod, and by several boards, commissions and committees of the conference. Other business included election delegates to the convention of the United Lutheran Church in America, to be held in Montreal, Canada, in November, 1954. The clerical delegates elected were the Rev. Mr. Sloop and the Rev. Kenneth Ehrhart and the lay delegates Dean W. E. Tilberg and Roy L. Geesey.

The resolution calling for the dissolution of the conference came at the close of the business session and was immediately followed by the declaration of dissolution and adjournment.

The conference convention was entertained in Enola by the Zion Lutheran Church as a part of the program celebrating its 150th anniversary.

How To Plan A Servantless Dinner Party

By ADELAIDE KERR
The Associated Press

In these days, when good maids are rarer than good minks, it pays to study the art of entertaining gracefully without benefit of servants.

Too many hostesses without servants make the mistake of trying to serve the same dinner with the same service that would be in order if they had several servants, which is fatal. One pair of hands cannot do the work of four. You will have to use the head — and some good modern gadgets.

The most important thing is to plan a menu of few courses, which will avoid repeated trips to the kitchen. No matter how good the food is, your guests won't enjoy it if you keep bobbing up and down. For this resson, many women who have no servants serve only two-course dinners. If you wish to serve three, it will simplify matters to serve a cold first course and to have it in place when the guests come in to dinner.

The next thing to remember is that, since your dishes are few, they should be super-good. The meat course should be one that you can leave alone in the kitchen safely for the few minutes before dinner, while you are having cocktails with your guests. For this, consider a good casserole or roast, with vegetables cooked with it.

The dessert should be one that can be brought into the dining room with the dinner and await its turn without sagging. For this many hostesses choose a delectable fruit tart or chilled berries in a glass bowl, nested in another bowl filled with cracked ice.

Finally, assemble your helpers, the gadgets. With their help you may remain seated from the beginning of the dinner to the end. Of course, you will have to break some of the rules of the most punctilious service — but you will look serene and that, is important.

You will need a rolling cart or tea wagon with several shelves on which to bring food into the dining room and on which to place used plates. There are metal carts with glass tops which flood with radiant heat when the tea wagon is plugged into the electric outlet. Such a cart can be placed beside your husband's place with the meat and vegetables on it and he can serve from it if he wishes.

Or, if you prefer, you can prepare a casserole dinner in a glass baking dish which has a metal support holding it over a candle warmer to keep it hot.

At your side should be either the rolling cart or a stand with a number of shelves to hold salad, dessert, and the plates for both.

Before you announce dinner, water glasses should be filled and all the food brought into the dining room and placed beside the one who will serve it. Your husband serves the meat and vegetables on the service plates which are before him and passes them down the table.

When the meat course is finished, the plates are passed to you and you serve the salad and dessert on their plates and pass them around the table too.

If coffee is served at the table, it can be kept hot with a candle-warmer or spirit lamp.

Dr. Heindel currently is deputy director for the staff of the U. S. National Commission for the United Nations Educational, Scientific and Cultural Organization of the U. S. Department of State.

The commission numbers 100 persons and is attached to the U. S. Department of State to advise the government and to act as liaison with the American people in connection with UNESCO activities.

Studied Here In '33

After studying at Gettysburg College, where he was freshman president of the class of 1933 and a member of the Phi Sigma Kappa fraternity, he attended Harvard University and the University of Pennsylvania where he was on the faculty of history.

Entering the State Department, he was sent to the American embassy in London, where he helped pioneer the establishment of the large network of overseas information libraries now maintained by the government.

Joined Vandenberg's Staff

He resigned from the Department of State in 1947 to accept a post under the late Senator Arthur H. Vandenberg as a staff associate of the Senate Foreign Relations Committee. Later he joined the Social Science Research Council for a year in 1950 to work in research planning in international fields.

In 1951 he served as chief of staff for the U. S. delegation to the General Conference of UNESCO in Paris.

He has played a key role in the third and fourth national conferences held by the U. S. National Commission for the UNESCO, in 1952 at New York and last month at the University of Minnesota. For the last two summers, during his vacations, he has helped to establish the Institute of World Affairs and International Cooperation at the Pennsylvania State College.

He has been associated in various capacities with the American Council of Learned Societies, the wartime National Committee on the Conservation of Cultural Resources, the Conference Board of Associate Research Councils which deals with the Fulbright programs, the former National Resources Planning Board, the Public Library Inquiry and is a Fellow of the Library of Congress.

He is author of a number of books, articles and reports and has been an editorial consultant for Doubleday and Co.

He is a son of Mrs. Lelia I. Heindel, Hanover, and is married to Betty Calvert, York. They have three children.

Now that the work of building, remodeling, and moderizing the Murphy store on Baltimore Street is completed, a formal opening will be held Friday. The general contractor for the building and remodeling work was I. Reindollar and Son, Inc., of York, Pa.

An additional 4,890 square feet of selling space has been added, making a total of 12,156 square feet that will be devoted solely to sales area.

The second and third floors of the building occupied by the Murphy store have been demolished so as to make a one story and basement building with uniform front, having five entrances, as well as one entrance in the rear of the store, convenient to Murphy's parking lot.

Latest In Fixtures

The very latest in store fixtures, fluorescent lighting and scientific air conditioning provide every comfort for the shopping public.

Other highlights of the beautiful remodeled and rebuilt store include modern see-through windows at the store front, which afford passers-by a view of the well illuminated interior.

Gettysburg shoppers will enjoy shopping from self-selection counters, which enables them to choose their own merchandise from various departments, therfore affording them quicker service.

Completely new rest rooms, lounges and offices for the employes' convenience also offer extra advantages.

Departments Enlarged

In commenting on the improvements and additional sales area, Manager C. O. Schweizer stated, "Many departments have been enlarged and assortments of merchandise have been broadened to enable us to render a more complete shopping service to the residents of Gettysburg and surrounding communities. The larger sales area affords us the opportunity to do the many things we have long planned. To properly present the newly enlarged store, we have planned a mammoth store-wide sales event, with extraordinary values in every department."

The opening of the enlarged Murphy store tomorrow will be under the supervision of F. P. Waldron, district manager, and Mr. Schweizer. The four-page advertisement carrying details of the opening and the unusual values will be found elsewhere in this paper.

Veteran Employe Is District Manager

F. P. Waldron, veteran of 28 years with the G. C. Murphy Company, is in charge of the district which includes the beautifully remodeled and enlarged Murphy store in Gettysburg.

Mr. Waldron started with the Murphy Company in 1925 at Latrobe, Pennsylvania, where he was employed as an assistant manager. In 1928, he was appointed manager of the Murphy store in Braddock, and served in the same capacity in stores in Aliquippa, Tarentum, Washington and Harrisburg. He was appointed district manager in Harrisburg, on January 1, 1952.

MURPHY'S HAS STYLE CENTER

The G. C. Murphy Co. was among the first of the variety store chains "to place its finger squarely upon the pulse of America's gigantic garment industry."

The company maintains a Style Center at 275 Seventh Avenue in the heart of New York's garment manufacturing district.

The Style Center occupies two floors of a skyscrapper building and serves as the hub of Murphy's distribution system.

Murphy style experts staff the center where metal racks, filled to capacity with dresses, robes, suits, coats, smocks and other articles of apparel, enable careful inspection and checking on up-to-the minute styling.

New garments are shipped daily from this center to the 225 Murphy stores, all bearing the New York Style Center label.

Truckloads of apparel from the Manhattan center stock the apparel departments of the company's new store on Baltimore Street in Gettysburg.

SCHWEIZER IS LOCAL MANAGER

C. O. Schweizer, manager of the remodeled and enlarged Murphy store here that is to be formally opened on Friday, started with the Murphy Company in 1925.

After serving as an assistant

C. O. SCHWEIZER

manager in Middletown, Ohio, for two years, Mr. Schweizer was appointed manager of the Murphy store in Streator, Illinois. Later, he accepted the position of manager in Greenville, Ohio, and remained there for eleven years.

In November, 1942, Mr. Schweizer was transferred to the Gettysburg Murphy store on Baltimore St. He will be in charge of the big opening event this week.

Mr. Schweizer is a member of the Gettysburg Chamber of Commerce, Rotary Club and the Chapter and Commandery of the local Masons. He is also president of the Board of Trustees of the Methodist Church.

W. C. Shaw, Board Chairman Of Murphy's, Took Personal Interest In New Store Here

Walter C. Shaw, chairman of the Board of Director, of the G. C. Murphy Company, has taken a keen personal interest in the construction of the newly remodeled and enlarged Murphy store on Baltimore St., which will be opened officially on Friday.

The interest is understandable. The new store symbolizes the success of many of the sales principles and managerial policies Mr. Shaw inaugurated years ago, and which today reflect in the remarkable growth of the company.

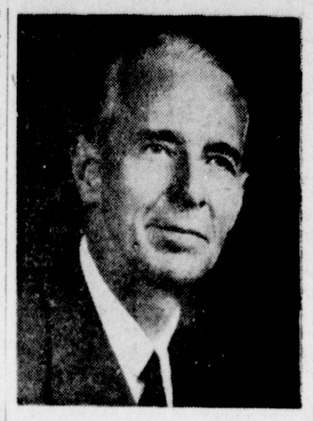

Mr. Shaw, a friendly, likable man, has had one of America's outstanding careers as a merchant. Born in the small community of Stewartstown, York County, Pa., he received his initial business training at the bottom of the ladder of a large variety store chain.

Share Same Ideas

Some years later, while still with this company, he became associated with John S. Mack, a man of then revolutionary concepts in the five and ten-cent store business. They soon found they shared the same ideas of business development and management.

Attempts of the two young visionaries to institute their policies as employes of the concern for which they worked proved futile, because they were restricted by a system, then in vogue, which accentuated home office direction to the disregard of individual initiative.

Mr. Shaw and Mr. Mack made the obvious decision. They decided to go into business for themselves and, in preparation, drafted a prospectus of three new principles.

WALTER C. SHAW

Their stores, they agreed, would upset the old unbreakable rule that nothing retailing above a dime could be sold in a traditional five and dime establishment.

Too, they would keep their company free of the smothering effects of too rigid centralized direction. Managers and others for responsible positions would be selected carefully and then would be given the freedom to exercise their own talents and enthusiasms.

Third, the Mack-Shaw business would be expanded vertically instead of horizontally—the practice then followed by most of the chain store organizations This meant that full efforts would be concentrated on increasing the sales volume of stores in operation—making them larger and of greater service to the public—rather than engaging in a race for new locations—the horizontal idea.

Buy Murphy Company

In 1911, Mr. Mack and Mr. Shaw pooled resources and purchased the controlling interest in the 12-store G. C. Murphy Company operating out of McKeesport, Pa. They went to work, Mack as the planner and Shaw as the operator. Their three basic principles were activated and, in time became the fundamental responsibilities for their success.

In the first Mack-Shaw organization, Mr. Shaw assumed the titles of vice president and sales manager. These imposing positions, as older Murphy employes remember, had no limiting influence on the work of the man who held them. Handy with hammer and saw and with the knack of a builder, Mr. Shaw was not above fitting a counter in a new store, or tearing out a partition for an enlargement.

Proud Of Growth

The growth of the Murphy organization has been a matter of immense pride to Mr. Shaw. As the company developed, he assumed also the responsibilities of general manager of all personnel, merchandise and sales operations. Later, he was made president at the death of his old partner, Mr. Mack, and then became chairman of the Board of Directors.

Today Mr. Shaw continues active in all phases of the Murphy business. He makes periodic trips of inspection to many of the Murphy Company's 295 stores. He keeps tabs on new products of likely acceptance by Murphy customers.

And he directs, from his office in McKeesport, the merchantile policies of a now large and complicated enterprise.

Active In Community

Although an extremely busy man, Mr. Shaw has found time to participate in the civic affairs of his home community and is recognized as McKeesport's No. 1 citizen. He is a member of the McKeesport Hospital Board of Trustees and takes a leading part in the direction of other institutions of public service.

A few years ago, Mr. Shaw was honored by the Chamber of Commerce of York, Pa., with a testimonial dinner and presented with an engrossed scroll for his outstanding achievement in the business world.

Recently, the degree of Doctor of Humanities was conferred upon him by Westminster College, at New Wilmington, Pa.

Mr. Shaw was honored with the "Humanitarian Award As The Outstanding Citizen of McKeesport for 1950," at a testimonial dinner, sponsored by the Boys' Club of McKeesport, Pennsylvania.

On September 24, 1952, Mr. Shaw attained the thirty-third degree in Masonry for his outstanding philanthropic achievements.

D. K. O'CONNOR HEADS DIVISION

trobe, Pa., in 1925, when he was hired as assistant manager of the Murphy store located there. In 1927, he was appointed manager of the store in St. Mary's, and served in the same capacity in Murphy stores in Baltimore, Md., and Youngstown, Ohio. In 1938, he was promoted to district manager, and became divisional manager in 1945.

Mr. O'Connor will be in charge of the opening event to be held Friday in Gettysburg, along with C. O. Schweizer, store manager, and F. P. Waldron, district manager.

Research Department Checks Merchandise

The G. C. Murphy Company, which re-opens its Baltimore Street Store Friday, maintains an extensive Merchandise Research Department in its home city of McKeesport, Pa.

The Research Department is a service unit primarily engaged in the evaluation of merchandise and the study of merchandise problems. Its facilities include a well equipped testing laboratory, maintained at the McKeesport warehouse close-by to much of ther merchandise enroute to the 224 Murphy stores.

Statistical and method researches carried on in the McKeesport office are supplemented by field studies in the stores, in the plants of the manufacturers, and elsewhere as required.

DEMOCRATS TO SEEK ANOTHER WIN AT POLLS

WASHINGTON (AP)—Flushed by an upset victory in Wisconsin, Democrats trained their campaign guns today on a special congressional election in California Nov. 10.

And some Republicans, stunned by Tuesday's reversal that saw a Wisconsin House seat go to the Democrats for the first time, talked of calling on the White House for help.

The California election is for the House seat vacated when Republican Norris Poulson resigned to become mayor of Los Angeles. It's in a district that in recent years has been normally Republican but has swung to the Democrats from time to time. Two Republicans and two Democrats are seeking Poulson's seat.

Rep. Keating (R-NY) said Tuesday's Wisconsin election sending Democrat Lester Johnson to the House to replace the late Merlin F. Hull, veteran Republican, "was one of the best things that could have happened to the Republicans at this time."

"May Wake Up GOP"

"It may wake up the party and arouse us from our complacency,'" he said. "It should be proof that we are going to take a beating next year unless we get out and work and do something."

Another Coming In N. J.

The House lineup now is 218 Republicans, 214 Democrats, 1 independent and 2 vacancies, both previously held by Republicans.

Another special election is slated in New Jersey next month to fill the House vacancy caused by the resignation of Clifford Case, Republican.

Even optimistic Democrats aren't making advance victory claims in this one, but after what happened in Wisconsin they haven't given up hope.

A jack rabbit can run as fast as a good race horse, often attaining speeds of 45 miles an hour.

WOULD CANCEL PLANS FOR TAX CUT IN APRIL

WASHINGTON (AP)—A Republican and a Democrat on the tax-writing House Ways and Means Committee agreed today that Congress should cancel a one billion dollar cut in excise taxes now set for April 1.

Present laws call for automatic reductions then from peak rates, imposed after the Korean War started, on automobiles, cigarettes, gasoline, sporting goods, liquor, wine and beer.

Rep. Richard M. Simpson (R-Pa) said he didn't see how these cuts could be permitted in view of the need for revenue at least to approach a balanced federal budget.

Rep Hale K. Boggs (D-La), in a separate interview, took a similar stand. Boggs predicted that many Democrats, although frequently opposed to excise or sales taxes, would go along.

President Eisenhower already has urged Congress to cancel the reductions, pending a promised general excise tax revision proposal, but Congress took no action this year.

Asks $2,000 Per Month And Divorce

SANTA MONICA, Calif. (AP)—Alleging cruelty, singer Ella Logan has sued movie producer Fred Finklehoffe for divorce.

In her complaint, filed yesterday, she asked reasonable support, estimated her requirements at $2,000 a month, plus a clothing allowance and requested a division of community property. She said the property includes a $100,000 home, a $55,000 farm at Springtown, Pa., a foreign sports car, house furnishings and five racehorses.

DRIVES 80 AT 80

HOBBS, N. M. (AP)—State police nabbed a speeder going 80 miles an hour. He gave his age as 80.

BRITAIN'S 2ND ATOMIC TEST IS SET OFF TODAY

WOOMERA ROCKET RANGE, Australia (AP)—Unofficial observers speculated that Britain's second atom test weapon—set off earlier today in this south Australian desert—was a projectile warhead.

A third British test is scheduled here soon.

There was as usual no official word on the type of weapon exploded today, but observers based their warhead theory on the comparative smallness of the devastated area and the fact that the blast was officially described as smaller than the one Britain set off in her first atomic test a year ago.

Today's blast was the 43rd atomic explosion reported by Western nations since the United States set off the first one in New Mexico eight years ago. Forty-one of these have been by the United States, including the two atom bombs dropped on Japan during World War II.

The Russians were believed to have detonated five atomic explosions before a recent series of tests that included an unspecified number of blasts.

U. N. DEBATE ON TRIESTE ISSUE OVERSHADOWED BY LONDON TALK

UNITED NATIONS, N. Y. (AP)—The diplomatic battle to keep a shooting war away from Trieste shifted to U. N. headquarters today, but Security Council debate on the explosive issue was overshadowed by the impending London talks on the question.

With their foreign ministers meeting in the British capital tomorrow and Saturday, British and American delegates here sat tight and waited to see what tack Russia's Andrei Vishinsky would take before the council this afternoon.

Vishinsky's proposal—that the council again try to set up an international administration over both zones of Trieste and give the whole area independence three months later—so far had met with a cold reception from Yugoslavia and Italy, the two claimants to the area.

Yugoslav Role In Doubt

Vishinsky was expected to lead off the council meeting with an echo of Moscow's earlier charge that the United States and Britain violated the 1947 Italian Peace Treaty by their decision to turn over Trieste's Zone A—occupied by British and American troops — to Italy.

The United States and Britain both indicated they would not intervene at once in the council debate.

There was no advance indication of what part—if any—Yugoslavia would play in the debate. It was no secret, however, that the Yugoslav delegation wanted no part of the Soviet proposal and tried vainly to prevent Vishinsky from entering it.

Yugoslav President Tito already has proposed a conference of the United States, Britain, Italy and Yugoslavia on Trieste. U. S. Secretary of State Dulles, leaving Washington last night for London, was reported openminded toward that suggestion.

James W. Shetter, son of Mr. and Mrs. George L. Shetter, left this week to begin his duties with the armed forces, having enlisted several weeks ago.

Mrs. Frank A. Staub, near Mummert's Meeting House, is slowly regaining her health following an operation.

Woodrow W. Brown, York, was guest speaker Sunday afternoon at the annual homecoming of Moul's school conducted in the fellowship hall of Holtzschwamm church near here.

Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Mummert, Mrs. Helen-Jane Sheely and twin son and daughter, Jay and Kay, Mr. and Mrs. Charles W. Mummert, Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Thieret, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Mummert and son, Ricky, Miss Ada Mae Mummert, Wayne, Jay, Larry and Donald Mummert were among those present at the Holtzschwamm grove recently for a reunion of the children of the late William and Ida G. Mummert, East Berlin.

Representing Holtzschwamm Reformed congregation at a fall conference of Mercersburg Synod conducted at Trinity Church, Hanover, were: John Gise, Mrs. Joseph Newbould and Mrs. George Wehler.

The Rev. Millard Kroh, Seven Valleys Lutheran pastor, will be guest speaker Sunday, October 25, at 2:30 p.m. at Holtzschwamm Church near here for the Young People's conference of the Ninth District Sabbath School Association. Maurice Rinehart is its president and will have charge of the conference.

Thomas A. Schade, a member of the local high school faculty, recently purchased a property in Paradise Twp. from Fred George.

Many of the most civilized countries of the world have death rates of around 10 per thousand per year, but are expected to have slowly rising death rates in the years to come as death takes an increasing toll in the aging populations.

College Freshman Dies In Gym Class

LOCK HAVEN, Pa. (AP)—A Lock Haven State Teachers College freshman died here after climbing a rope in a physical education class.

William K. Corbin, 18, was declared dead Tuesday by Dr. Kenneth S. Brickley, college physician. No reason for Corbin's death was given immediately.

A resident of Belleville, Mifflin County, Corbin was a physical education student. Dr. Richard T. Parsons, college president, said the youth's medical record showed no heart condition.

Students in the class with Corbin said he climbed halfway up the rope, came down and bent over to tie his shoe, when he appeared to faint.

One of the most important discoveries of cobalt in recent years was made recently at Moa Bay on Cuba's northeast coast.

3,000 FULL-TIME REPORTERS ON PAYROLL OF A. P.

NEW YORK (AP) — During every hour of every week — thousands report the news that millions read and hear.

Oldest and largest of the world's news gathering organizations is the Associated Press. Tracing its beginnings to 1848, the AP is owned by its members on a cooperative basis. It has no stock, makes no profits and declares no dividends. More than 6,000 newspapers and radio and television stations throughout the world share its news. Of this total, 3,000 are in the United States.

The AP has about 3,000 fulltime employes throughout the world, some 900 of them in the foreign service. There are nearly 100 bureaus in the United States and 50 more overseas manned by AP staffers.

Every 24 hours over 350,000 miles of leased teleprinter circuits in this country flow approximately 1,000,000 words of news — equivalent to seven or eight average-length novels. Over 25,000 miles of a high fidelity network are transmitted photos of on-the-spot new events.

Reporting A Wreck

If you read, for example, of a train wreck in the Rocky Mountains a few hours after the accident, this is what happened:

Reporters and photographers from AP member newspapers or the nearest AP bureau were among the first at the scene. By telephone they report the casualties and eyewitness accounts which a fast rewrite man in the AP Bureau whips into a readable news story within minutes. The story flashes out over the wires which go to your newspaper and local radio station. Pictures move almost as quickly.

Today an AP man's creed is the same as that of Lawrence A. Gobright, AP Washington correspondent during Abraham Lincoln's administration:

"My business is to communicate fact. My dispatches are sent to papers of all manner of politics. I therefore confine myself to what I consider legitimate news, try to be truthful and impartial."

Two-thirds of America's farm families belong to one or more cooperatives.

TEEN TALK

By VIVIAN BROWN
The Associated Press

We know that when good fellows get together — they sing.

That music is said to calm the savage beast —

And that musical therapy is prescribed for neurotics.

But have you ever considered how music can be a friend when you are alone?

A famous prisoner, AP correspondent Bill Oatis, recently released from a Czech prison, says that writing and studying music may even maintain your sanity. It did for him.

"There were some days that I was so intent upon searching for melodies in my mind or singing or humming to myself songs that I had written, I almost forgot where I was — and that I was supposed to be in that spot for 10 years," Bill says.

Often he spent entire days writing songs, stopping only for knedliky (Czech dumplings) or potatoes, the usual menu choices. He scratched his songs on tissue paper with a pencil loaned by a prison official who months later came through with some stationery.

Starts Studying Harmony

After a year and a half of this sort of melody doodling, Bill began to study harmony and preparation of musical manuscripts from books he received from the AP, through the American Embassy at Prague. He studied these until he was released May 16.

Bill's prison songs expressed his moods and wishfulness. His first was a hillbilly number called "Family Reunion Day" and another, "sort of an open-road song," was entitled "I'm Free as a Bird on the Wing." He wrote blues, love songs, and satirical songs. One was about all the states in the union. It started out "I wanna go back to South Dakota." He wrote of his native state in a song called "Indiana, Indiana, That's the Place for Me." Another song started "I Want to be in Minnesota" (where his wife was living).

Bill even got down to writing a song about all the months of the year. He taught some of his songs to his cell mate, a Catholic priest, who in turn taught him Czech and Slovak songs.

Wrties Opera

At one point (and it must have been a fairy tale mood) Bill wrote an opera called "The Three Bears," embodying it into the framework of a musical comedy.

He'd have given his daily rations of dumplings, however, to span an octave on a real honest-to-goodness piano. He had taken lessons as a youth and played in bands around his home town. A jazz enthusiast, he had memories of jam sessions such as Nick's in Greenwich Village New York where fans of Eddie Condon and Fats Waller could sit of a night and hear old W. C. play his own "St. Louis Blues."

Bill also wrote a song suggesting, "Let's Tear Off to a Far Away Island." The song ended:

"We can lie around all day on sands . . .

Where gentle ocean breezes blow . . .

Let's go settle on a little island far away from worry, work and woe."

So—the next time you feel sorry for yourself, hum a tune, play your record player or tickle those piano keys. Feel lucky that, unlike Bill Oatis who lived in a 6½ by 14 ft. cell most of his 2½ years in a Czech prison, you can look out a window and see birds and trees and grass and bees, and maybe even write a song about them.

The Southern District of Lower California, in Mexico, has a climate resembling Arabia's.
